Spruce Up Saturday!

The Hospitality Ministry discussions have resulted in a suggestion that we set aside several days each year to “spruce up” our church campus. As we prepare to welcome scores of visitors on Easter morning, it seems a perfect time to launch our first Spruce Up Saturday! Just as you’d make those extra hospitality efforts if you were expecting company at home, we’re expecting company—and lots of it!—Easter Sunday.

Please RESERVE THE DATE: SATURDAY, APRIL 4TH, 9AM -NOON.

Here’s what we’d like to accomplish and will work the list as time permits:

- Polish wood floors (Murphy’s Oil Soap)
- Clean windows
- Vacuum pews and book holders, straighten books
- Dust (furniture, railings, lights)
- Scrap paint from outside window panes in Battin Hall
- Remove iron/mineral stains on outside walls and side-walks
- Plant seasonal flowers

We’ll have our regular church cleaning supplies, but please bring extra vacuum cleaners (with hose attachments) mops, buckets, Windex, paint scrapers and razor blades, blowers, and planting tools.

Many hands make light work. Hope to see you on Spruce Up Saturday!

*A Letter from Marqua Brunette, Director of Choirs
To My Holy Nativity Family*

In August 2005 I came to Panama City from New Orleans to escape the wrath of Hurricane Katrina. Five days later I met Beverly McDaniel and Interim Rector, Dennis Baum. By the grace of God, he hired me part-time to resume the children's choir. My New Orleans credentials were well respected as I was the Children's Choir Director at my Episcopal Church, Trinity. On the first Sunday I came to worship at Holy Nativity and learned that I was needed sooner than expected in order to sub for organist, John Durgan for six weeks.

Holy Nativity gave me a job, a church home, a purpose and something to sink my teeth into to distract me from the unknown stresses associated with what was happening in New Orleans. Beverly also found a room and a piano at the school so I could begin teaching private piano and voice lessons. My first piano student was two weeks to the day after Katrina and continues to this day as my student and friend. My experiences in those first months were as close to a calling from God as I had ever received.

Upon John's return he resumed his duties as organist but I became Director of Choirs. What was once only one choir, is now three; Rite One, Chancel and Children's Choirs. I have loved the people and my work here and feel that I have grown professionally and spiritually. I also know that I have touched and reached people here through my music ministry, making me continually blessed.

In May of 2008 I was diagnosed with CLL (Chronic Lymphocytic Leukemia) and began chemotherapy right away, along with blood transfusions. My first phone call was to Fr. Steve. I needed and wanted prayers and Holy Nativity was there for me, also bringing meals and serving as chemo-buddies. I had 43 pints of blood transfused in the next 10 months and two huge rounds of chemo that year. Remission finally followed and I was grateful, but exhausted.

Unfortunately my leukemia returned in the spring of 2013. Since that time I have remained in chemo. My current maintenance program should finish by the end of 2015. Presently I am having major challenges with my immune system so additional infusions to boost it have been added.

I have prayed much over the last couple of years and months and have made a major decision in my life. On May 1st I will reach that "Medicare" age of 65 and it has become increasingly apparent that I need to lessen my work load and stress levels for my health and well-being.

My final Sunday as Director of Choirs will be May 31st when I will officially retire from that position. I am NOT abandoning Holy Nativity. I plan to continue to worship here and, with God's help, find new ways where I am called to serve. For financial reasons, I cannot stop working completely so I will still teach private piano and voice lessons as well as do public relations for an author in New Orleans.

I have been working in the Episcopal Church for 17 years and nearly 10 years at Holy Nativity. I give thanks for those opportunities daily. Thank you for your love and support and for welcoming me so much into your church. It is time to; literally, pass the baton, to someone else to lead your music program here. I look forward to worshipping in your midst as one of the congregation.

With love and gratitude, Marqua Brunette

ADULT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

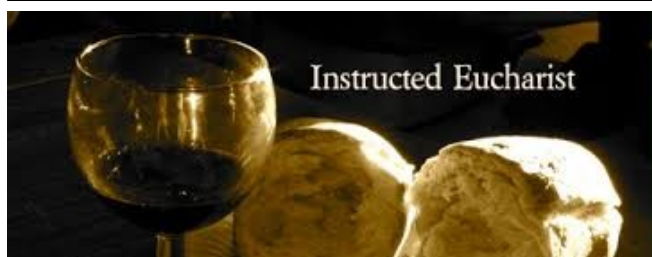

Other Sacramental Rites (BCP 860)!

Some parishes say “confirmation classes” but I’m calling it “question sessions.” The bishop is coming May 10th and will confirm or receive anyone who lets Madge (747-4000) know you are interested. Confirmation is the rite in which we express a mature commitment to Christ, and receive strength from the Holy Spirit through prayer and the laying on of hands by a bishop. We will have four classes, sessions, before the bishop comes, STARTING SUNDAY, APRIL 12TH, in Adult Sunday school, to discuss our theology, history, liturgy and call as Christians. Everyone is invited and welcome, those who are being confirmed or received by the bishop are asked to come to these sessions in which we will talk about what it means to be Episcopalian. 9:15 to 10:15 Sunday mornings, Mary Stuart Poole Library together with Adult Sunday School.

Adult Sunday School classes continue, including through the confirmation sessions mentioned above. 9:15 to 10:15 Sundays in the Mary Stuart Poole Library, the double doors at the end of the brick road.

Tuesday morning Bible Seminars continue into May. Mary Stuart Poole Library, gather for conversation and coffee between 9:30 and 10:00 Tuesday mornings, sit down at ten o’clock, convene with prayer at 10:05. We’ve just finished Mark and are moving on to another Bible book and story.

♪ Music Notes ♪

by Marqua Brunette, Director of Choirs

This year April begins in the middle of Holy Week and just in time for Easter! All three of our choirs have been busily rehearsing for these special occasions and future dates as the excitement continues to build.

Maundy Thursday – April 2 – Both of our adult choirs will join together to sing for this special service that evening. They sang together on Ash Wednesday to begin our Lenten season and it seems only fitting that they come together again during Holy Week.

Good Friday – April 3 – With minimal music for our noon service, the powerful “Adagio in G Minor” by Tomaso Albinoni will be performed by Mary Ellen Reddie on violin with piano. This particular piece is quite moving and will be played while the large cross is brought into the church and draped in black.

Easter Sunday – April 5 – No doubt, both services will find filled pews and our choir loft area will also be filled. The Rite One Choir will sing for the 8:00 service and The Chancel Choir will sing for the 10:30 service. The Alleluias will return to our worship and the sounds of organ, voices, and trumpet will resonate throughout the church.

The Rite One Choir will also sing on the 4th Sunday of Easter, known as Good Shepherd Sunday, May 3rd. They continue to be a very dedicated group of individuals and get so enthused when they really ‘get it right’. The addition of a couple of voices plus some joint rehearsals with the Chancel Choir has given them more confidence. Weekly rehearsals continue on Thursdays from 5:30 – 6:30 PM and we generally sing once a month in church. New members are welcome anytime. What began with as only three voices three years ago continues to grow as a real choir! Praise God!

The Chancel Choir has experienced a time of year with many members enjoying some vacations and time off so rehearsals have been held jointly with the Rite One Choir, but we are now back on our regular rehearsal schedule of weekly Thursday evenings from 6:30 – 8:00 PM. I make every effort to instill in the choirs that they should view their music ministry as their gift and the evidence lies in their commitment to what they do.

The Children’s Choir

Spring Break coincided with Palm Sunday again this year so we missed the children singing in the courtyard. Fear not, you have more opportunities to see and hear them before our season stops for summer break. While the children do not sing weekly, they rehearse weekly and manage to learn a great number of songs. Basic music skills are also learned with a focus on prayer and why we sing what we sing. One of the benefits of this group is watching these children from many different schools join together and develop friendships as they serve our church together. Music and choirs can help form lasting bonds of friendship and compassion for others. These children totally ‘get it’, as was witnessed by our recent Taize service. I was almost brought to tears seeing young children come forward to pray at the cross.

I like to think that our Children’s Choir is building a choir for the future of Holy Nativity. Nearly every adult choir member started out singing in their choir as a child. It is part of our stewardship for our church to plan for the future. I assure you, based on what we see with these young voices, the future for music at Holy Nativity is in good hands!

Throughout this season of Lent, the Sunday School and Wednesday Evening programs have been designed to help our children be aware of the often-dire needs of others. Again this year, the offerings from our Lenten mite boxes will be donated to the International Heifer Project to buy baby chicks, not for pets, as the children first imagined, but as life-sustainers in poverty-stricken areas. We are discussing with the children ways to use their own efforts to earn the money for their mite boxes so that they will be more invested in their contributions. Thank you for offering suggestions and opportunities for them to do additional chores and extra work so they can experience the blessings of generosity and caring for others. If your child has not gotten a mite box, please see me or you may create one from any small box or bowl or sandwich bag...just something to bring in donations for Easter Sunday.

On Palm Sunday or during the first four days of Holy Week, please bring candy-filled plastic eggs or bags of wrapped candy (no gum please) to any of the services, or drop them by the church office through April 1st. Please call the office first to make sure someone will be there. We need to get the bags of candy by Wednesday (Stations of the Cross) so that the Youth Group will have time for filling the plastic eggs that we already have.

On Easter Sunday, we will enjoy the Easter Breakfast at 9:15 followed by the egg hunt at 10:00. I will be asking many of you to help on Easter morning by supervising the Flowering of the Cross, the presentations of the mite boxes, and the Easter Egg Hunt. The Border Patrol (so called because last year at Easter, we did not yet have our park-like lawn and fences) will be on duty to maintain our Christian virtues of kindness and sharing.

Please remind your children to bring their Easter Baskets, mite boxes, and flowers, and you can bring cameras and phones for many pretty pictures. The older I get, the more I understand the importance of making our faith celebrations memorable and meaningful for our children. If you have questions, comments, or suggestions, I welcome your calls.
