Adult Christian Education - Fr Tom

Hello, folks, all is well, and as covid precautions abate with everyone's vaccination, attendance in person has been ginning back up for our Adult Sunday School class. And this is a reminder that, although other parish activities take a summer break, our class does not. One reason is that I'm at church anyway, and I do not like whiling away the Time between services scrolling Facebook or such! So class is offered and available all summer long.

One thing I want to express is my appreciation of Dr. Dan Finley, for taking the morning as class mentor when I need help.

While everything is fluid and flexible, my intentions for the summer include one-morning off-base diversions into a couple of Bible books that nobody ever heard of, and into one or two books of the Apocrypha, and into one or two non canonical books listed in Early Christian Writings, the website that we refer to and use frequently. It's not an assignment, nor a request, but if anyone in class is curious about anything particular, tell me, and your choice may be one of these selections.

Also, as we head into the long green Season after Pentecost, as well as Mark, there'll be opportunities to discover something about Second Corinthians and Ephesians and, as we slide beyond summer into fall, the Letter of James. Lots of good stuff ahead. Come one, come all. Sundays between services, 9:15 to 10:15 in the parish library, come early, come on time, come late, but come. You are invited and welcome! If you can't come in person, turn on and tune in, we'll be live-streaming on the Holy Nativity Facebook page.

Backpack Buddies Wrap-Up

We are wrapping up another successful year of our Backpack Buddies Ministry and it could not have been possible without the unfailing support of all of you. Through your monetary generosity, consistent hard work and faithful prayers we have been able to provide needed weekend meals for about 90 Buddies per week and are blessed to be able to help during the summer by providing snacks to the school for their Summer Learning Recovery Program.

Thank you to weekly Teams, to the Double Baggers, to the folks leaving food stuffs and bags in the grocery cart, to the generous check writers, to HNES 6th grade science classes for saving bags to save the planet and help those less fortunate, to the packers, to the deliverers, and to the prayers! Thank you especially to our husbands, Chuck and Bert, for their constant support and strong backs!

Please keep your eyes out for announcements about the upcoming school year, so that we can hit the ground running and continue this vital ministry.

In gratitude to all,
Barbara and Marla
